LES 2023 QUARTZ

Cuvées spéciales is a series of very exclusive batches, made with special winemaking (whole-berry fermentation, skin contact) and aged for several months in second-use barrels.

Quartz is the main crystal composing the sands of this wine's terroir.

Variety: 100 % Sauvignon blanc

Appellation: Ungrafted vines on Gualtallary's sandy loam soils, at 1,200 m high, espalier vineyard.

Harvest and wine-making: Manual harvesting and post-harvest selection during the last week of February. Indigenous yeasts. Skin-contact fermentation in a new 500 L French oak barrel. Aged for 9 months on the lees inside that same barrel, with regular bâtonnage. Bottled without filtering.

Age of the vineyard: 25 years old

Yields: 8000 kg per ha

First vintage: 2023
